To Whom It May Concern:

I am grateful for the opportunity to offer this letter on behalf of Gail Dudley. Having known Gail for more than sixteen years now as her husband, pastor and friend, I have observed and have the privilege of being a beneficiary of her relationship with Jesus.

Gail's faith is evident in everything that she does, always seeking to honor the Lord in her lifestyle and with her service. She demonstrates great depth and awareness of her place in Christ and I have never known her to be anything but a blessing to others. I am certain that what God has been able to do through her life is a direct result of her passionate prayer life, authentic devotion, and openness to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Gail has always been in my estimation a wonderful example of confident, committed, competent and consecrated leadership. In her role as a tremendously gifted Christian minister, preacher and administrator, there can be no doubt that she walks in the very anointing of the Lord as she serves God's people with consistency. She is a mentor to women and men alike, as well as significantly influencing the partners of our ministry with the motivation to achieve God's very best for their lives.

Sincerely,
